MESSAGE FROM THE

CENTRAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Dear brothers and sisters in the Living God.

It is my honour on behalf of the distinguished members of the Organizing Committee to welcome you to this memorable occasion in the Archdiocese of Mbarara. It is not usual to witness an ordination of 32 young, handsome and energetic men being ordained to the priesthood and diaconate respectively.

Today we gather to celebrate the love and generosity of God towards His people and the commitment, dedication and surrender of the Ordinands to His call. This occasion is a testament to the power of faith, the importance of community and the need of compassionate leaders in our Church, 'shepherds after God's own heart' – Jeremiah 3:15. May our new priests and deacons be beacons of hope, peace, charity and love.

I extend my gratitude to our Archbishop, priests, friends and all people of good will within and outside our Archdiocese for their guidance and every support towards the successful celebration of this day. To the families, benefactors and friends of the Ordinands, thank you for being there for them during their formation. All our service providers and members of Media houses we thank you so much.

To you my fellow heads and members of the following subcommittees; Liturgy, Finance, Ushering and Protocol, Communication and Publicity, Health and Sanitation, Construction, Catering, Security, and Accommodation, you know everything, you know how instrumental you have been during our preparatory meetings up to now. May God bless you a million times!

May this day be always a memorable one to us, our Ordinands, and all of you who have turned up in big numbers to witness the wonders of our God.

PLEASE FEEL AT NYAMITANGA!

Rev. Fr. Severinus Ndugwa
